II. Section 3-802 Responsibilities

   A. To serve as an Institutional Building Advisory Committee as prescribed by Regents' Rules and Regulations, Rule 80302.

   B. Conduct studies to determine the long range program and faculty needs of the University.
C. Recommend an order of priority for building new facilities. This priority order shall be reviewed at least once annually by the committee members and a new order of priority recommended (or the old reaffirmed).

D. Review preliminary applications for all proposed academic programs to determine probable costs. Make recommendation to the President and Undergraduate Assembly and/or Graduate Assembly as appropriate concerning priority and starting dates for all proposed academic programs based upon the ability of the University to finance such programs.

E. Make recommendations to the President and Undergraduate Assembly and/or Graduate Assembly as appropriate for facilities or academic programs.

F. Hold necessary hearings and make proper investigations to translate the approved academic program into priorities for new construction, with suggestions as to total project area and function, and make such recommendations to the institutional head.

G. Shall be relieved of further direct responsibility whenever a building contract is awarded, but shall be available for consultation as the building progresses, as requested by the institutional head, the U.T. System Chancellor, or his/her delegate, and the project architect.
